Illinois Central Elite-ICE Parents, Players and Families:

We hope you and your family are healthy, safe and surviving the COVID-19 Pandemic. For the Fall season, youth basketball according to the Illinois Government is considered a medium risk sport. At the moment basketball is a level 2, meaning the teams can have skill training with intra-team scrimmages with parental consent. Teams can play games in Wisconsin and Indiana with parental consent.. Teams cannot play competitive games in Illinois.

It is our hope and desire for your players to continue playing with Illinois Central Elite-ICE Travel Teams for the ICE Fall Travel Season. The following is the breakdown of ICE Fall Travel Team Fee 2020
